

ACCAC Review

Wednesday's Women's Action:

- Cochise 1- SCC 1: In this match, Scottsdale GK Amanda Hartrick came up big for The Chokes. Cochise had some chances, but could not finish them.
- Glendale 1- PC 1: In this battle of close rivals, neither team looked to step up and take the 3 points, Phoenix did a good job of dictating tempo in this one, but could not find a late winner.
- PVCC 2- CGCC 1: CGCC came out with a great game plan and scored early in this match up. PVCC battled back to equalize, then they would find a winner with only 8 minutes left to remain unbeaten in ACCAC play.

Saturday's Women's Action:

- Pima 4- PVCC 1: The Pumas came out in the first half and got a penalty kick, and Shelby Snyder stepped up and gave PVCC the 1-0 lead which lasted until half time. The second half was a different story, with The Aztecs out-classing The Pumas with 4 strait goals to solidify their spot on the top of the league.
- Game Note: It is not cool to say in your post game report (PVCC Head Coach), that you only gave up 4 shots in the second half and they scored on all 4. This does not make you look any better, it actually makes you look worse, that a team can come down and score every time they take a shot. Just admit you got killed in the second half, there is never a team that dominates and gives up 4 goals in a half. Seriously!!!

Mesa 1- GCC 0: Glendale tried to sit back and counter, but there was not much of a counter attack. Ashley Wise scored for The T-Birds and pulled them out of the bottom of the league and into 6th place!!! Mesa played with a season high 12 players in this one as well.

PC 4- Cochise 3: Phoenix is playing very inconsistent, but today, they played like a top team by knocking off a tough Cochise team in a goal fest.

CGCC 6- SCC 1: Did I see this right...6 goals by The Coyotes??? Baily Foutz led the way and if CGCC can keep this scoring touch, they will be very dangerous in the second half.

Monday's Men's Action:

PVCC 3- Mesa 1: PVCC dictated the tempo of this game and forced Mesa into playing very direct and ineffective, while they possessed the ball and controlled the game. Cesar Mexia is still EN FUEGO baby!!!!

Yavapai 8- SCC 1: This was a natural butt kicking. Enough said....

CGCC 4- GCC 0: The Coyotes yo-yo season was on an up swing in this replay from a game cancelled due to lightning earlier in the season. The Yotes came out and put away The Gauchos with very little fight from GCC.

Wednesday's Men's Action:

Yavapai 4- Pima 1: Pima would come out and score early, but The RR would rattle off 4 strait goals in this game, which was played in The Prescott Valley Amphitheatre. This proves it, Yavapai is still the best!

CGCC 2- PVCC 1 (OT): The Coyotes would continue their string of impressive results by low pressuring and countering The Pumas all night. This slowed the passing of The Pumas. CGCC would open the scoring, but with 4 minutes left, guess who, Cesar Mexia would equalize the game giving PVCC the momentum going into over time. But late in over time, The Coyotes would score the golden goal and celebrate on PVCC's field.

Mesa 3- SMCC 1: Wednesday Golf works again. Mesa would come out and give up a PK to The Cougars (I was looking for some older lady's, but it was a bunch of soccer players). But anyway, Mesa would equalize before the half and then go up 2-1 as well. The second half was back and forth before Mesa would put this game away.

AWC 4- SCC 0: Now that the problem players are gone, AWC looks to be hitting their stride. It is still not too late.

PC 2- GCC 0: PC would defeat the lifeless Gauchos in this rivalry game, Glendale can not score....give them a PK or something!!!

Saturday's Men's Action:

SCC 2- CGCC 0: Just when you think CGCC has figured it out, you see this. Can SCC turn it around in the second half???

MCC 3 - Glendale 0: Not a PK for Glendale....nothing???. Ok, I need to pull some strings to get The Gauchos a goal.

Yavapai 5- SMCC 2: After being up 2-1 at the half, Yavapai would finally figure out The Cougars and extend their lead to 4 goals before a late SMCC strike. Yavapai would end the first half with no losses; get ready for a chilly play-offs up in Prescott.

Pima 3- PVCC 2 (OT): Now the soccer god's are talking. This is PVCC's 2nd OT loss in a row. Has their luck ran out? Or can they rebound next week against SMCC?

AWC 4- PC 0: Look out, here come The Matadors. Abdel baccera got his 9th and 10th goal of the season in this dismantling of The Bears.
